Lakeland Impartation: Kundalini serpent or Holy Spirit?

Revival Spirits From Eastern Religion

Unleavened Bread Ministries

“Kundalini Yoga adherents are recognizing the manifestations of Toronto/Brownsville/Lakeland “Revivals” as those of the Kundalini serpent rising through the chakras to the mind in these people. This is none other than possession by the New Age Eastern spirits. Bible respecters know that these manifestations are not the experiences or demonstrations of our spiritual forefathers. In the chart below the “Revival” manifestations on the left are taken from observations and testimonies of the false revivals.

How one receives this “blessing” Impartation through the laying on of hands	How one receives Kundalini Awakening Through the laying on of hands during “Shakti-pat” initiation

Who can administer this “blessing”?

Anyone who has received the false anointing

Who can give Shakti-pat?

Anyone who has received the ability from the Guru or one of his disciples

These Kundalini spirits and other spirits of eastern religions have sought to enter many revivals. In some cases the discernment of the leaders saved them. Read more...

The following article was written about the Toronto blessing. The Toronto blessing was the wave that preceded the Lakeland revival and involves the same principals.

Comparison Between Kundalini and the so-called Toronto Blessing

What are the signs of an awakened kundalini?

Briefly, according to classical literature the signs of an awakened kundalini can be grouped into: mental signs, vocal signs and physical signs. Mental signs can include visions that range from ecstatically blissful to terrifyingly frightful. Vocal signs can include spontaneous vocal expressions that range from singing or reciting mantras to make various animals sounds such as growling or chirping. Physical signs include trembling, shaking and spontaneously performing hatha yoga postures and pranayamas.

From a more subjective perspective the more pleasant experiences associated with a kundalini awakening may include: waves of bliss, periods of elation, glimpses of transcendental consciousness. The less pleasant experiences associated with a kundalini awakening may include: trembling, sharp aches in areas associated with the cakras, periods of irrational anxiety, sudden flashes of heat. The following manifestations are also mentioned. singing, reciting mantras, animal sounds, trembling, shaking, yoga postures, waves of bliss, elation, altered consciousness, aches, anxiety, and feeling of heat flashes.

So how do I awaken kundalini?

Broadly speaking there are two radically different direct approaches to awakening kundalini. One approach requires initiation by a guru and relies upon a technique called shaktipat, or ‘descent of shakti.’ It is variously called: Siddha Mahayoga, Kundalini Mahayoga or Sahaja Yoga (Spontaneous Yoga)... While not every long-term student necessarily shows signs of kundalini awakening it is amazing how many people have had instant awakenings of kundalini through initiation from Siddha gurus Shaktipat means ‘the descent of power’ (literally: kundalini). The most common form of shaktipat is a touch by the guru on the individual’s forehead. This is exactly the method that is used greatly to impart the ‘anointing’, for example, by Rodney Howard-Browne. This is also the most common way to receive the power.

Can one receive shaktipat just by being in the presence of those with awakened shakti?

There is no doubt that shakti is contagious. The mere presence of a single being whose shakti is strongly active can awaken the shakti of those around him. Similarly being in the presence of many people whose shakti is awakened to some degree can awaken one’s own shakti.

The ‘anointing’ is known to be contagious by nature and easily transferred from one to another. John Arnott compared it to a ‘spiritual virus’. For example when the members of a group of people holding one another’s hands fall simultaneously).

What are Kriyas?

Kriyas, literally “activities”, are spontaneous movements that occur after kundalini awakening. These include bodily activities such as trembling, shaking and spontaneous yoga postures; vocal activities such as yelling, or spontaneous chanting and mental activities such as visions. These kriyas eliminate the blocks to kundalini rising within the spine or central channel.

In general, 'the anointing' is known to be easily transferred further from anybody 'already on fire'. However, usually short courses are held for direct intercessors before they go on to minister people. The method for distributing the TB anointing is different from the traditional view of Christian intercession, where the focus is on God and His work needs no control, surveillance or intervention from people. In the TB the intercessors are instructed to watch people and their bodily manifestations to know what the spirit is doing. In this way, The TB ministry resembles science more than traditional intercession.

In Toronto meetings, usually only appointed ministers are allowed to pray for people. This is because of some quality control. In a sound Christian assembly, all are required and allowed to pray for others, not just appointed ministers.

In Toronto Blessing the receiver is asked to surrender to the ‘power of the Holy Spirit’ and to receive the good work (“purifying kriyas”) of Him without questioning. So this is exactly the same initial condition that is required for the awakening of kundalini. Read more...

Please see “A Call for Discernment” by going to <http://www.justinpeters.org>. Justin is an evangelist and in addition to expository preaching, also holds seminars on the “Word of Faith” movement. He has cerebral palsy and concurs with the apostle Paul, “My grace is sufficient for thee.”
